

TELUS WISE®

Online slang and acronyms

Learn what your kids are really saying on social media or in their text conversations. While many of the popular slang and abbreviations are harmless these are some possible red flags.

Abbreviations

- Af - As FK
- ADR – address
- ASL – age/sex/location
- B2K or BTK – Back to Keyboard
- F2F – face to face / facetime
- GNOC – get naked on camera
- GYPO – get your pants off
- IWSN – I want sex now
- KFY or K4Y – kiss for you
- KPC – keep parents clueless
- KYS – kill yourself
- KMS - Kill myself
- LMIRL – lets meet in real life
- MOS – mom over shoulder
- MPFB – my personal f buddy
- P911 – parent alert
- PAL – parents are listening
- PAW – parents are watching
- POS – parents over shoulder
- pron – porn
- S2R – send to receive (an exchange of explicit pictures)
- WYRN – what’s your real name
- YOLO – you only live once

Slang

- Netflix and Chill - Connect for casual sex
- Lit/Turnt/Turnt Up - Something popular as well as drunk or high
- Basic - Refers to a boring, conforming person
- Dabbing - A dance, or concentrated cannabis
- Bae - Someone one has affection for; some suggest it stands for “before anyone else”
- Squad - a group of friends

Are you looking to support a child or student who is being cyberbullied? Find additional resources at telus.com/wise.